(As of May 2013)

“UNDERSTANDING THROUGH EDUCATION”

The Citizen's Police Academy was established in January 1987.

The Citizen's Police Academy is a fourteen-week (that includes graduation) program designed to give the public a working knowledge of the Austin Police Department. Each session consists of fourteen consecutive Tuesday night classes at City of Austin facilities. The instruction is comprehensive and each week separate areas of the department are covered.

As of May, 2013, 1,945 citizens will have graduated from 78 classes. Classes are hosted two times a year at APD Headquarters.

- Class 79 Fall of 2013 Evening classes September 17 – December 17 with hours; 5:30p- 9:30p.
Deadline to enroll is August 31,2013

Cadet Training, Bomb Squad, Robbery, Homicide, Use of Force, Internal Affairs, Vehicular Homicide, S.W.A.T., Forensics, Recruiting and meeting the Chief are examples of some of the topics that are covered. Instruction consists of lectures, demonstrations, tours, and riding with a police officer on a ten-hour shift.

The slogan of the Citizen's Police Academy is "Understanding through Education". The goal is to educate the public about the Austin Police Department and to increase the rapport between citizens and police officers.

We hope the graduates of the Citizen's Police Academy become more aware and better informed about how the Police Department operates, and will encourage friends, coworkers and families to join the Austin Police Department in this rewarding program.

Frequently Asked Questions

What is the purpose of conducting a Citizen's Police Academy?

To give the public information on how the Police Department works and its policies and procedures, through a series of classes involving instruction by police officers.

Where did the concept originate?

The program originated in Orlando, Florida in 1984. Orlando was the first city in the United States to start a Citizen's Police Academy.

What was the Austin Police Department's incentive for starting a Citizen's Police Academy?

We feel the more information the public has about the police department, less fears and misconceptions will exist.

When does the class meet?

There are three Citizen's Police Academy sessions per year. Students meet at Austin Police Department facilities. There will be a total of approximately Fifty Two (52) hours of instruction by police officers. All classes are free.

Who attends the Citizen's Police Academy?

Students range from 18 years of age and above. We have architects, bankers, homemakers, students, retirees, teachers, neighborhood groups and professionals attending the classes.
